

What is a Certified Senior Advisor (CSA)®?

A Certified Senior Advisor® is a professional who has received specialized training in aging and the important issues that affect seniors. This broad-based training is developed by Society of Certified Senior Advisors® (SCSA) and delivered via SCSA's proprietary CSA Designation Program.

CSA Code of Professional Responsibility

To become and remain a Certified Senior Advisor in good standing, a CSA must sign the CSA Code of Professional Responsibility, pledging to adhere to the following principles and standards:

- Competence.
- Honesty.
- Trustworthiness.
- Fairness.
- Professionalism.

Interested in learning more about CSAs and the CSA designation?
Please visit us at www.csa.us or call us at 800.653.1785.

Certified Senior Advisors (CSA) have supplemented their individual professional licenses, credentials and education with knowledge about aging and working with seniors. Know what those licenses, credentials and education signify. The CSA designation alone does not imply expertise in financial, health or social matters.

